Honoured Sir:

I have Discovered a Very Great Mistake Respecting Mr. Beall's Commasary Business under me at the time of the Militia Marching from Pitt in Octob'r 1812, truly I signed the abstract but only gave them a slight Examination seeing the No. of Officery in the abstract to be Correct and in the heavy of Business of Preparing to make a move oversilghted the No. of Privates which ought to have been 238 in place of 138 Excluding him from obtaining pay for the Rations of 100 Men for 10 Days the Reason why the thing has Lain over so long was when I returned from the army Mr. Beall was gone from home and Mr. Vandegroff who had the Business to settle had not the Counter abstract or Could it be found Mr. Beall's papers Mr. Vandegraff told me there was an Error Existing he was sure his Discovery as he said was from the scraps of provision return'd he found among Beall's papers and the two Ferriage Receipts signed Jones & Bathreck of the Troops Crossing the Rivers Monongahela & Alagena and after a full Examination to the business I am fully satisfyed of the mistake but as to the Charge being too high Respecting the forage for the troopery the No. is Right but Respecting the price of forage I agreed with Mr. Beall for the United States price for both forage and Rations I know that oats was from 50 to 62½ Cents p. Bushel and hay 1.00 pr. hundred w't at Pittsburg and Mr. Beall furnished plentifully for man and beast During the time I was unacquainted with what quantity of Grain was allowed to each horse & Day or the allowance of hay Mr. Beall told me that Capt. Sealy (who was the Capt of the troop) Demanded of him 3 pecks of Oats & 12 bb of hay for each horse p. day and at that time I thought Proper to allow it Mr. Beall has Returned home and has made out a true and just abstract the same I have particularly examined, if the former has not been sent on to the Ac't General's office in my humble opinion it would be just and Right to adjust the Mistake As I Certainly know the mistake to have taken Place with Sentiment of Respect and Esteem I am yours most Cerly to

DIARY OF COL. JOEL FERREE'S REGIMENT.

COLONEL JOEL FERREE'S REGIMENT.

Through the curtesy of Mr. J. Sutton Wall Chief Draughtsman of the Department of Internal Affairs the Editor obtained the following account of Col. Ferree's Regiment, as well as the diary of Quarter-Master Garret Wall.

"The record presented below is obtained from the following sources: (1) A diary Kept by my grand-father, Garret Wall, who was Quarter-Master of the regiment in which Capt. Ferree's Company served. (2) The day-book in which Capt. Wall kept his accounts of provisions, clothing, etc. issued to the regiment. (3) The muster-out rolls of the regiment now on file in the office of the third auditor of the Treasury.

Capt. Ferree's company formed a part of what is called in the records the "First regiment Second detachment of Pennsylvania militia in the service of the United States, commanded by Brig. Gen. Richard Crooks." The regiment was mustered into service at Pittsburg for the term of six months from October 2, 1812, and was mustered out April 2, 1813, at Fort Meigs, Ohio. It was paid to include April 15, 1813, the men having been allowed thirteen days in which to return to their homes. As the history of the company may best be given in connection with a history of the regiment and its operations, that method will be adopted. By that method, also, full justice may be done to other companies no less deserving of historical recognition.

The regimental officers were as follows:

Joel Ferree, Lieut. Colonel commanding.
Thomas Ringland, First Major.
Robert Orr, Second Major.
James Roberts, Surgeon.
Garret Wall, Quarter Master.
Geo. C. Vollandigham, Adjutant.
Thomas Duncan, Pay-master.
George Huey, Surgeon's Mate.

The regiment consisted of eight companies of infantry, as follows:

Up to November 25th 1812, two troops of cavalry were temporarily attached to the regiment—one of forty-three men under Captain Thomas S. Seely, the other of thiry-one men, under Lieut. Thomas Warren. The regiment rendezvoused at Dunlap's Plains near Pittsburgh, until Oct 19, 1812, when it broke camp and its movements are those noted in the Dec. 11. Col. Ferree marches for Upper Sandusky.

Capt. Johnson, two subalterns, the quarter-master and forty men remained as a guard to fetch on the military stores. Capt. Johnson leaves Mansfield on the 16th the quartermaster on the 17th. The quartermaster reaches Upper Sandusky on the 19th. From Mansfield to Upper Sandusky 40 miles.

The regiment remained at Upper Sandusky until January 24th, 1813, when its movements are noted in the dairy as follows:

Jan. 24, 1813. The Virginia Brigade, with Col. Ferree's regiment, set out for the Rapids of the Miami of the Lake Encamped on the 25th at the Tiamaughta (Tymochtee). On the 28th they proceed and cross the Tiamaughta on the ice, leaving their baggage, as the ice will not carry horses. Jan. 30, the Brigade arrives at the river Portage, where they meet Gen. Harrison, with Gen. Perkins' Brigade, and proceed to the rapids of the Miami of the Lake on 1st. of February. Gen. Harrison with the above Brigades arrives at the foot of the Rapids on the 2d. of February. From the Rapids to Upper Sandusky 60 miles.

Under the head, "Occurrences," the diary continues as follows:

"General Winchester defeats the Indians and their allies on the 18th January 1813. The Indians reinforce from Malden and attack Gen. Winchester on the 22d, find his camp in disorder, defeat and rout him in all quarters. Out of 1,052 men only 27 return.

Gen. Harrison dispatches a flag to Malden on the 31st. January, under the direction of Dr. McGibben, with two privates one of whom, Mr. Connant, was found killed and scalded at the Rapids on the 3d. February. Feb. 22. Col. Ferree very sick with Jaundice. Feb. 24. We still continue at the Rapids.

A secret expedition of about 150 men set out at 10 o'clock, Commanded by Capt. Langam.

March 5. Gen. Harrison and suite set out in order to visit his family, who are residing at Cincinnati, Ohio. The secret expedition returns after going about 20 miles on the lake where they find that the channel of the lake has not been frozen over.

March 9. Two regulars were fired at by the Indians near the old British fort.

March 10. Lieut. Walker, from Beaver County, was found killed and scalped by the Indians on the north side of the Miami river about three miles below Fort Meigs. The next entry in the diary noted the departure of the regiment "for home" on the 2d. April, 1813. Its commander, Lieut. Colonel Joel Ferree, died April 9, 1813, at Zanesville, Ohio, while en route to his home. Though this officer's illness began in the month of February, and was at times severe, he nevertheless remained at his post of duty until discharged from service with his regiment. The regiment went into service in October, 1812, with 35 officers and 511 enlisted men. When discharged at Fort Meigs April 2d. 1813, there were present for duty, as shown by the issue of rations for that date 30 officers and 352 men. The apparently heavy loss largely represents absence from the command on account of sickness and with leave, only a small number being reported as absent "without leave". The number of deaths, if any, is not reported in any records now at hand.

The provision account contains the following note: A soldier's ration consists of eighteen ounces of flour, twenty ounces of beef or pork (three quarters of a pound if salted), and one gill of whisky per day; and at the rate of one pound and a half of candles, four pounds of soap, a half gallon of salt and a half gallon of vinegar, per hundred rations." A note under date of February 24th, 1813, says: Flour, meat, and salt, have been constantly drawn by the regiment since the 12th of December, 1812. Previous to that time a field ration of flour was not issued."

The returns show that whiskey was issued only from February 24th to March 25th, a period when the weather was doubtless most inclement and severe on the troops. At Upper Sandusky the regiment assisted in the construction of a fortification which was named Fort Ferree, in honor of its commander. At Miami Rapids, in addition to other military duty, it assisted in the construction and eqipment of Fort Meigs.

A soldier's life in those days was one of hard labor and much suffering. The historian Spencer, writing of this period, says: "The Pennsylvania troops suffered very great hardships during the winter in dragging the artillery and stores from Sandusky to the Rapids." (Vide Book V Chapter 9, History of U. S.)

Note. The first page of the diary bears the following inscription: "Notes of each day's march and station of the Second detachment Pennsylvania militia, in the service of the United States, Commencing October 2, 1812."

By order of MAJOR GENERAL NATHANIEL WATSON,
H. SHIPPEN, First Aid-de-Camp.

Baltimore, Sept. 20th, 1814.

Sir: On Sunday last the whole of the 1st Brigade consisting of two Regiments and a Battalion having been marched off from the York encampment Genl. Foster* and myself with our aids left York and arrived here last evening. I left Brig. Genl. Addams to command at York with instructions to march on his Brigade by Regiments as expeditiously as practicable.

Col. Kennedy's Regiment is the only one for which we have tents. His Regiment arrived here yesterday and is encamped. In consequence of being totally destitute of Tents for the residue of the troops I have been reduced to the necessity of marching each Battalion separately with instructions to the commanders to scatter them along the road in Companies in order that the men may be sheltered over night in taverns, barns and sheds. The consequence is we have been most vexatiously delayed in our arrival here. The men are at this moment scattered along the whole road between this and York.

I expect the 2d Regiment under Col. Ritscher to arrive here to-day, part this morning and part this evening. The 5th Battalion to-morrow morning. By Thursday and Friday I hope the whole of the 2d Brigade under General Adams will have arrived except a Lieut. Guard which will be left at York to take charge of the sick and the deserters that may be brought in, in consequence of the rewards offered for them. I called on General Smith last evening. He gives me some expectations that our men or some of them can be accommodated in the rope walks. But I am very apprehensive there will not be room sufficient for half our numbers, and they must consequently be in the open fields. If so I am extremely fearful that those not accommodated with shelter will desert by companies. The example will be ruinous to the residue of my troops and I am fearful that the result will be disgraceful to our State. If we are ordered on a march for one day 4 Regiments must lie on the bare grounds, with no shelter under the heavens. Pennsylvanians are accustomed to good living, they tell me they are willing to fight, to obey and march where we please, but they must have tents to shelter them from the severity of the inclement season which is fast approaching.

I have the honor to be most respectfully
Your obedient humble Servt.
His Excellency Simon Snyder,
Governor of Pennsylvania.

P. S. Since the foregoing letter was written, Genl. Smith has sent for me and verbally communicated to me an order from the Secretary at War for all the Pennsylvania Troops under his Command to be marched to the Delaware. This order arriving at such a moment as this when we are embarassed with difficulties, places me in the most unpleasant situation that can be imagined. Our Quarter Master has not one Cent at his Command, and it has been with the greatest difficulty that Wagons as well as rations could be supplied to enable the first Brigade to leave York. The men are all armed with Muskets, but without Cartridge boxes except 1500. No fixed amunition, Nor powder to make it of, except for a guard, nor can we, I am informed by Genl. Smith, be furnished with it here in case we march for Philadelphia. Our march will be along the very waters open to the incursions of the enemy, & without the means of defending ourselves if attacked.

Very respectfully
your obt. servt.,
(Signed) NATHNL. WATSON,
Majr. Genl.
P. Militia.

THE CHRONICLE.

Harrisburgh, Monday evening, December 19, 1814.

Brigade Orders.

York, Penn., Dec. 7th, 1814.

In pursuance of general orders the brigade under the command of brig. Gen. John Forster is now discharged. The commandants of companies will march their men to such places as they may deem most suitable for their dispersion, and then discharge them individually. The general cannot take leave of the brigade which he has had the honor of commanding without expresssing to the officers and men his gratitude for their attention to his orders, and his approbation of their general conduct during the campaign. They have not met the enemy on the field of battle, but the patriotic spirit with which they entered the service; their strict attention to discipline; their patient endurance of hardships, added to their proficiency in military knowledge are sure pledges that had that been their fortune, their conduct would have been honorable to themselves and their country. The frequent scarcity of necessary supplies rendered the duties of the quarter masters particularly arduous, and it is but justice to the gentlemen acting in this department to acknowledge their zeal and exertions to render satisfaction to their respective regiments.

The general has seen with pleasure the cheerfulness with which the disappointment in not being paid for the whole service performed, was borne by the officers and men of his brigade; such privations are unfortunately but too common to a soldier's life, and in the present case they have been borne with a spirit becoming soldiers.

On the return of the troops to their homes and accustomed occupations, and again mixing with the pursuits and occurrences of civil life, to reflect on the events of the campaign cannot but yield them pleasure and consolation for the hardships and privations they endured. It will have created new associations of friendship among the gentlemen of all ranks in the brigade, and will draw closer those previously formed. It will disseminate through a portion of our state correct notions of the duties of an officer and a soldier, and a mass of information on military subjects that may be highly useful in the crisis of public affairs that appears to be approaching. Our country is contending for its existence, if there be a country worth fighting for assuredly it is the one in which we dwell. The situation of the country demands many sacrifices from all its citizens, and it is with pride anticipated by the general, that should an emergency similar to that which drew the troops now present from their homes again occur, it will be met by them with an equal degree of spirit and patriotism. Should it be the fortune of the general again to enter the service with his present rank, his highest ambition will be to command a brigade resembling in correctness of conduct the one with which he is now about to part.

The perfect regularity and good order with which the march from Baltimore to York was conducted merits particular notice, and the general tenders his thanks to the field officers of his brigade for their able assistance during the march. In commanding the troops the general does not mean to flatter; unmerited praise he would equally scorn to offer, as they would disdain to receive. It is not to be concealed that commissions of irregularities and omissions of duty have occurred both among the officers and privates; but these it is believed are few in number and such as are perhaps inseparable from any body of troops suddenly transferred from their homes to encounter the arduous and rigorous duties of a camp.

In taking leave of the officers and men of his command, the general sincerely wishes them a safe and happy meeting with their families and friends, and begs them to accept his warmest wishes for their future welfare.

By order of the Brigadier General,

JOHN M. FORSTER,
Brigade Major.

Headquarters, Baltimore,
September, 20, 1814.

"Captain Spangler and his company of volunteers from York, Pa., having honorably performed the tour of duty for which they had offered their services, are hereby permitted to return to their homes. In taking leave of this gallant corps, the major general commanding has great pleasure in bearing testimony to the undaunted courage they displayed in the affair of the 12th inst., and in tendering them his thanks for the essential aid they contributed towards the defence of the city.

S. SMITH, Maj. Gen. Commanding."

"Captain Spangler,

Dear Sir.—Hearing that you are about to depart from our city with your brave corps, I cannot do justice to my own feeling without expressing the obligations I am under to you and them for the promptness with which you uniformly executed my orders, your readiness at all times to perform your duty and the cool and manly conduct manifested by the officers and men under your command during the action with the enemy on the 12th inst. May you all return in health to the bosoms of your families, and long enjoy happiness uninterrupted. I am, sir, with sentiments of sincere respects your humble servant,

R. K. HEATH,
1st. Major, 5th reg't."

Regimental Orders—Fifth Regiment.

Baltimore, September 20, 1814.

Captain Spangler's company of York Volunteers having permission to return to their respective homes, the lieutenant colonel cannot permit them to depart without thanking them for their soldier-like and orderly conduct. The few days they were attached to the 5th regiment, was a momentous period of trial—they not only had to face the dangers of battle, but to bear the inclemencies of weather and suffer all the inconveniencies of fatigue, watching and hunger to which the soldier is liable in the hour of alarm—these were met and borne by them with a manly fortitude, which does them honor and entitles them to the gratitude of Baltimore, and particularly to the friendship and esteem of the officers and men of the 5th regiment, which are thus publicly and cheerfully accorded to them."

It being impossible to state precisely the distance each man travelled to the place of rendezvous, in most instances an average distance is taken which will be found not to vary on the whole from the truth of the case. The distance here stated is from the place of rendezvous to each man's home. Of course the distance is to be doubled in each case, as it is so many miles to the place of rendezvous, and so many miles from the same, it being the place of discharge.

State of Penn'a, York County:

Personally appeared before me Andrew Duncan one of the justices of the peace in and for the county of York, Captain James Kerr and being sworn according to law deposeth and saith: That this Muster Roll is a true Statement of his company whilst in the service of the United States, and that the remarks set opposite the men's Names are accurate and just, and that they have pay due them respectively as herein mentioned. Signed duplicates.

JAMES KERR, Captain.

Sworn & Subscribed Before Me Andrew Duncan, May 13, 1814.

I Certify, on honor, that this Muster Roll exhibits a true statement of Captain James Kerr's Company of the Detachment of Militia for the period therein mentioned, and that the remarks set opposite the men's names are accurate and just. Mustered at York, November 22, 1814.

It being impossible to state precisely the distance each man travelled to the place of rendezvous, an average distance is taken which will be found not to vary on the whole from the truth of the case. The distance here stated is from the place of rendezvous to each man's home. Of course the distance in each case is to be doubled, as it is so many miles to the place of rendezvous and so many miles from the same, it being the places of discharge.

Officers Attached to this Company.

Capt.

William Reese, ... } Served the same time and under the same circumstances as the privates.

2nd Lieut.

John Friedt, ...

Ensign.

Daniel Koch, ...

State of Pennsylvania, York County:

Personally appeared before me George Haller one of the justices of the peace in and for the county aforesaid Captain William Rees, and being duly sworn as the Laws directs, deposeth & saith: That this Muster Roll exhibits a true statement of his company whilst in the Service of the United States; that the remarks set opposite the men's names are accurate and just and that they have pay due them respectively as therein mentioned.

WILLIAM REESE.

Sworn & subscribed before me this 14th day of May, 1816.

GEO. HALLER.

I Certify, on honour, that this Muster Roll exhibits a true statement of Captain William Reese's company of the Detach'd of Pennsylvania Militia for the period therein mentioned and that the Remarks set opposite the names of the men are accurate and just. Mustered this Twenty second day of November, 1814, at York.

It being impossible to state precisely the distance each man travelled to the place of rendezvous in most instances an average distance is taken, which will be found not to vary on the whole from the truth of the case. The distance here stated is from the place of rendezvous to each man's home. Of course the distance is to be doubled in each case, or it is so many miles to the place of rendezvous & so many miles from the same, it being the place of discharge.

ARCH'D S. JORDAN.

Brigade Inspector 1st Brigade 5th Division Pa. Militia.
